

Family Cell Phone Contract

- I understand the rules below are for my safety and my best benefits
- I understand the phone belongs to my parents and they can take away the phone or look at the phone at anytime
- I understand the phone will be taken away if I talk back to my parents, if I sleep too late, if I fail to do my chores, or if I fail to keep my grades up
- I will readily hand over my phone after school and at any time for my parents to monitor my activity
- I will always answer calls or texts from my parents right away
- I will not use the phone without my parents' permission
- I will not use the phone before I finish my homework
- I will not bring the phone to upstairs bedrooms
- I will not use my cell phone during family mealtimes or family time
- I will not look at the phone when talking to someone in person
- I will make sure my phone is turned off when at church, in restaurants, or at other quiet settings.
- I will share all passwords and login information with my parents, and will not make any changes without their permission
- I will not change any settings, nor download apps without permission
- I will obey all cell phone rules imposed by my school, such as turning it off during class or keeping it on vibrate while riding the school bus.
- I will not use the phone to take inappropriate photos, or send rude, mean or threatening texts to others
- I will alert my parents when I receive suspicious or alarming phone calls or text messages from people I don't know.
- If I damage my phone – whether intentionally or accidentally, or by my neglect – I am responsible to pay for it by doing chores in the house.
